D7.3 Coclico website _Version 01

1.Introduction

This document records the development of CoCLiCo’s public website and its contents. We will be able to see an update of this document every one or two months showing the new sections and updates added as the project develops.

2. Information architecture

CoCliCo website will contain the main information presented in the proposal plus some basics elements for the web with new goals:

- Subscription – To get leads and provide them with useful information and point them to the future platform.
- Glossary – To add interesting terms
- Resources– where we will temporarily allocate resources and publications of interest (in a future they will probably be on the platform too).
- Blog – Where we will publish updates and interesting posts as communication actions.
